

The Eagle River Nature Center

Nature

"A dream...to touch the woods and walk in the shadow of great mountains...came true."

Sharon Ruch
Madison, WI

The Eagle River Nature Center, just 45 minutes north of Anchorage, is the northern gateway to Chugach State Park. Nestled among 7000-foot peaks, towering waterfalls and forests of birch and white spruce in Upper Eagle River Valley, the Center offers a host of nature-oriented activities:

- Daily Guided Nature Walks
- Weekend Interpretive Programs
- Self-guided Hiking Trails
- Wildlife Viewing

The Eagle River Nature Center

The Eagle River Nature Center

Explore

"Great to have such an accessible place."

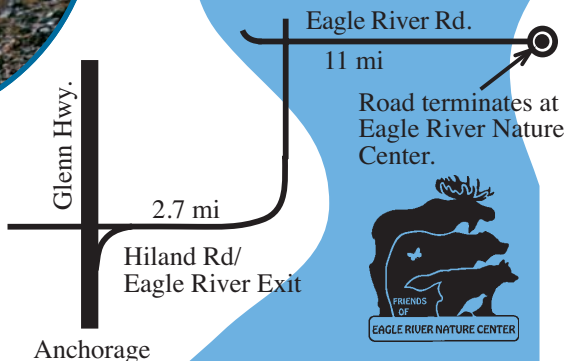

John Summer
Centerville, VA

Guided Backcountry
Wilderness Hikes and
Overnight Camping Trips

Interpretive Education
Exhibits and Wildlife
Displays for All Ages

Nature gift shop, rest rooms, snacks and beverages, annual memberships, day use fee.
The Nature Center is managed by a non-profit organization in cooperation with Chugach
State Park.

Sponsored by:

BP EXPLORATION

32750 Eagle River Rd.
Eagle River, AK 99577
(907) 694-2108

Card design and nature photo by Pamela Baker
Explore photos by Dick & Carole Lloyd

Please Call for Hours.