

Bear Viewing

BROOKS FALLS AT KATMAI NATIONAL PARK

Viewing bears in their natural environment is the highlight of many visitors' trip to Alaska, and there is no better place to get up close and personal with the bears than Katmai National Park.

To begin your all day adventure you will depart from Lake Hood and enjoy breathtaking views of the Alaska Range and its many glaciers.

After landing your floatplane you will watch the bears feed on migrating salmon as they leap up Brooks Falls. Just like the bears, you too will be provided with a tasty lunch, however you will not be expected to catch it in your mouth.

On your way back to Anchorage you will fly up beautiful Cook Inlet where you will almost always see Dahl Sheep scampering up the sides of the mountains. Keep your eyes open for beluga whales that are often spotted in the inlet. As your trip comes to an end you will have unique views of the city of Anchorage.

8-10 HOURS | 699.00 PER PERSON

SILVER SALMON CREEK

Silver Salmon Creek is located in the beautiful Lake Clark National Park and is an ideal bear habitat. The creek is loaded with salmon attracting bears to the area all summer long. Silver Salmon Creek is a quick one hour scenic flight from Anchorage along the Cook Inlet. After an exciting beach landing, a guide will meet you at the airplane to shuttle you to the lodge via four-wheeler. After a quick and informative bear safety briefing, you will trek through a wild bear habitat with your guide, who will show you all the favorite spots. The guide will be with you all day to answer any questions you might have and give you a fantastic tour of the area. After your tour, you will head back to the lodge for a hearty lunch. It is truly an experience of a lifetime.

6 HOURS | 649.00 PER PERSON

BIG RIVER LAKES | 3 HOURS | 299.00 PER PERSON

This is the perfect opportunity for the viewer who does not have all day to spend. A beautiful flight down Cook Inlet spotting for wildlife and whales brings you to the spectacular Big River Lakes, a truly majestic destination. Here you will view the bears from the comfort of the airplane as they frolic with their young and catch salmon. A quick trip but it is sure to be the memory of a lifetime.

Regal Air operates Bear Viewing Excursions during the summer months from June-September.

4506 Lakeshore Drive, Anchorage, Alaska 99502

Denali National Park

MT. MCKINLEY AND DENALI NATIONAL PARK TOUR

Mt. McKinley dominates the Alaska Range. Located about 45 minutes north of Anchorage by air, it towers 20,320 feet above sea level and is the tallest peak in North America. Every year many world class climbers attempt its summit.

A Regal Air McKinley Tour will take you over famous glaciers, climbers' base camps, spectacular views of the summit, and places no man has ever set foot. On your return, scout for bear, moose, swans, eagles, and land on a remote mountain lake. It is an experience of a lifetime!

3 HOUR TOUR | 329.00 PER PERSON

Knik Glacier

KNIK GLACIER TOUR

1½ HOUR TOUR | 199.00 PER PERSON

The Knik Glacier lies within a quick 25 minute flight from Lake Hood and has some of the most spectacular scenery in Alaska.

A Regal Air Knik Glacier Tour is the best way to experience the Knik Glacier. On the way to the glacier your experienced bush pilot will help you scout for moose and sheep along the foothills of the Chugach Mountain Range. You will get incredible views of the glacier from overhead, and then land for the once in a lifetime experience of landing on the lake at the foot of the glacier. Here you will get a rare photograph of the incredibly blue Knik Glacier ice, and if you are lucky you will hear the thunderous caving of the glacier as it carves its way down the valley.

info@regal-air.com • www.regal-air.com